Sigma Theta Tau International, Honor Society of Nursing Scholarship for Post-RN Baccalaureate Students

Introduction

Sigma Theta Tau International, Honor Society of Nursing Scholarship for Post-RN Baccalaureate Students was established in 2002 to recognize one post-RN student with a clear vision of what their further education means to them. The scholarship, valued at $2000.00 USD, will be awarded to the post-RN student who can demonstrate, through references and a personal essay on "How has entering your post-RN degree changed your view on nursing as a whole or in your personal practice?"

Criteria

- The award is available to post-RN baccalaureate students registered in a nursing school with current membership in the CNSA.
- The student must be working toward a baccalaureate degree.
- Selection will be based on the personal essay, with attention paid to academic excellence and references.
- The applicant must submit an official transcript of his or her marks to date with the application.
- The candidate must successfully complete the academic year in which the application is made.
- The applicant must provide two letters of reference. One should be from an instructor and one should be from either an employer or nurse manager.
- Current members of the CNSA BOD are not eligible for the award in their year of office.
