Dear Nursing Student:

Laurentian University is proud to be hosting the Canadian Nursing Students' Association's (CNSA) 2009 Ontario Regional Conference in Sudbury, Ontario. You are cordially invited to participate in the Ontario Regional Conference, themed "Nursing: Celebrate the Diversity", from October 30th to November 1st, 2009. The conference is being held at the Radisson hotel in Sudbury.

The CNSA's annual Regional Conference aims to promote a professional identity among nursing students, as a means for communication, engage in discussion and learning surrounding issues in nursing, especially those related to practice in francophone and aboriginal environments. Through the conference students will be able to participate in memorable events such as gaining knowledge from guest speakers, interacting in workshops, and attending a career fair to highlight job opportunities across the province. Everyone is welcome; however, please note that nonmembers are unable to attend the business meetings associated with the conference.

Enclosed is the registration form. Early registration is available until October 9th, 2009 at a reduced cost. Regular registration will be available from September until October 16th 2009. Late Registration will be accepted until October 28th, 2009. It is recommended that students book accommodations at the Radisson hotel as early as possible to ensure a special rate for the conference of $115 per room, per night.

If you have any further questions or require information regarding the conference, please contact Jamie Kyriacou, Conference Coordinator at (416) 899-0529 or jx_kyriacou@laurentian.ca.

Please forward registration and payment to:
